STAT

We have been advised by Representative Eugene Siler of your interest in a career in Government service.

The enclosed brochure describes opportunities and requirements for employment with our Agency in a professional capacity. We shall need more information about your background and experience before advising you regarding specific opportunities which might be immediately available to you and are enclosing application materials for this purpose.

We appreciate your interest and shall be glad to give your application careful consideration.

Sincerely,

G. M. Stewart
Director of Personnel
